

Table 2

Prevalence of Children's Exposure to Potentially Traumatic Events (N = 166)

	% endorsed	N
Type of exposure: Family Violence Events
Child has heard or seen people in the family assaulting each other	66.4%	97
Child has been separated from caregiver	51.4%	89
Family member arrested, jailed, or imprisoned	46.2%	70
Child has seen or heard family members threaten to harm each other	38.6%	64
Child has been physically assaulted or beaten	23.5%	39
Child repeatedly told he/she is no good, yelled at in a scary way, or threatened with abandonment	16.3%	27
Child has been without food, water, shelter, etc.	14.5%	24
Someone has threatened the child with physical harm	8.4%	14
Someone close to the child attempted suicide	7.8%	13
Child has been forced to see or do something sexual	5.4%	9
Child kidnapped or someone close to the child was kidnapped	3.6%	6
Child witnessed someone else forced to engage in sexual activity	2.6%	3
Type of exposure: Non-Family Violence Events
Child witnessed physical assault between non-family members	36.7%	61
Child exposed to war or terrorism on the television or radio	33.7%	56
Child experienced serious illness/medical problem	29.5%	49
Death of someone close to the child	21.7%	36
Severe injury or illness in someone close to the child	19.9%	33
Child was in a serious accident resulting in injury or death	10.8%	18
Child witnessed a serious accident	10.2%	17
Child attacked by dog or other animal	4.2%	7
Child directly exposed to war or terrorism	1.8%	4
Child present during theft or mugging	1.8%	3
Child experienced natural disaster	.7%	1