

48 hours about the next 10 years

- 25 Board members
- 9 National Experts
- 149 Conference attendees

Board members and Plenary Panel Experts

- 8 Program Administrators
- 4 Researchers
- 4 Providers
- 6 Technical Assistance Providers
- 4 Family Members
- 4 Youths
- 4 Other

Conference attendees (N=149 completed responses)

- 49 Program administrators
- 48 Researchers
- 34 Providers
- 24 Technical Assistance providers
- 12 Family members
- 0 Youths
- 22 Other

Board members and experts (N=35) 5 Priority Areas

- Make children's mental health a national priority (13/37%)
- Advance the science (13/37%)
- Improve the workforce (11/31%)
- Ensure services are family-driven and youth-guided (11/31%)
- New/improved financing models (10/29%)

Five Cross-cutting Themes

- Build the infrastructure for high-quality services
- Move our money and make new investments
- Formulate and mobilize a Political Strategy
- Forge new partnerships and enhance existing ones
- Ensuring cultural competence

Conference attendees (N=149)

- Make it a national priority: Mental health is a part of health (126/84%)
- New/improved financing models (76/51%)
- Improve the workforce (64/42%)
- Ensure services are family driven and youth guided (58/38%)
- Advance the science (50/33%)

